

An Urban Experience

42ND WORLD SMALL ANIMAL VETERINARY ASSOCIATION CONGRESS AND FECAVA 23RD EUROCONGRESS

25-28 September, 2017
Copenhagen, Denmark

A chance to get the best of two worlds: CE high quality and Copenhagen 'dressed up'

From the 25th to the 28th of September 2017 we have the honor of hosting a WSAVA/FECAVA Congress in Copenhagen with an excellent scientific program. In 9 streams for 4 days there is interesting topics for all. Also there are pre-congress seminars you can join.

The Bella Center is a modern facility. The place is huge and very experienced in hosting large congresses, so expect the best. Exhibition area will be also the place for catering, lunch, coffee etc. The Metro station is at the back door of the congress center, so you will be in the mid City of Copenhagen within less than 10 minutes. Trains run also in the night, so transportation is easy. If you feel like it, you can also rent a bike. Distances are short. You can find hotels at all prices in Copenhagen.

The Opening Ceremony and Closing ceremony will be worth attending, but the Danish Evening on Wednesday the 27th will be spectacular. Don't miss it! Besides there will be other tourist opportunities for you and your family listed on the web page www.wsava2017.com, where you can also see the scientific program, register etc. And don't forget clothes for running and for yoga, as there is a FUN(d)RUN and FUN(d)Yoga to support the fight against rabies

The Local Host Committee will be very pleased to welcome you to this fantastic event.

See you in Copenhagen

Dr. Anne Sorensen
President of the Local Host Committee &
Danish Small Animal Veterinary Association
